Received numerous awards and she spends countless hours to enrich the culture of volunteerism and service. Evelyn believes to strengthen our community people of all colors must work together, accept diversity, and serve in any way possible.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

I would like to nominate Mrs. Evelyn McGovern for the Robert H Albert Award. Evelyn McGovern has been the president of Women of Colors for over 20 Years, she has led this organization with strength and dignity. She has developed several programs within Women of Colors such as: Girl Pride, Sugar and Spice, Young Men Who Dare. She has been in the fore front of our future technology programs; she has a heart for the community and for the young people and that keeps her motivated to do everything in her power to make all the programs a success.

Evelyn is a retiree of the City of Saginaw and although she retired, she did not retire from her community work, in fact it seems as though she has picked up more. Evelyn has also received a degree in prevention and that deals with all kinds of addictions so that she may continue to work the adults as well at the youth. Evelyn has also developed a collaboration with several other organizations so that there is strength in numbers, she doesn't mind sharing her knowledge to help where ever she can.

Please consider Evelyn McGovern for this prestigious award, and she will continue to make us all proud of the work she does.

Sincerely

I am honored write a letter of support for Evelyn McGovern's nomination for "Robert H. Albert Lifetime Community Service Award. I have known Evelyn for over 10 years through Women of Colors, non-profit organization. Her work started back over 26 years as co-founder of Women of Colors, an organization that services Saginaw community by enriching families, especially empowering women of diverse cultures.

Evelyn's activities in servicing Saginaw community involve programs, with youth, through Great Empowering Motional Sessions (GEMS), with include Girl Pride, Sugar and Spice, and Young Men Who Dare. The youth programs have been in progress for over 10 years, and have helped youths build their self-confidence.

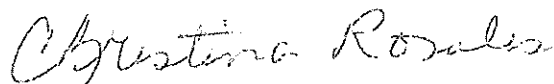

Evelyn's vision has grown over the years to include projects that will enrich youth growth, such as, SaFT (STEM program), LifeSkills and prevention in substance abuse. Evelyn has taken these programs to the schools and Saginaw Juvenile center where students can get involved and help them plan for a enrich future. Evelyn continues to find ways to mentor youths in at risk environments.

As the president of Women of Colors, Evelyn's leadership has taken the membership to work on important issue that effect the community. Programs, such as, "How I Overcome" for women and "I'm Still a Man" for men. This powerful programs give individuals an opportunity to share their stories and challenges and how they have transition into where they are today.

Evelyn McGovern has worked a lifetime helping the Saginaw Community, and I can't wait to see what is next for her. I'm very excited to work with Evelyn!

Evelyn's lifetime commitment and activities to the community truly make her a recipient of the "Robert H. Albert Lifetime Community Service Award!

Thank you,
