Re: Dan Handley - Recommendation for Robert H. Albert Lifetime Community Service Award

Dear Business Advocates:

As all of you know, Dan Handley has spent the four decades of his professional career doing good to do well. His success is a direct result of his laser focus on the success of others - his clients, his business partners, and his beloved Saginaw community.

Even when Dan is in the center of the room, he dodges the spotlight. Instead, he shines that light on the contributions of others in the room, and on their value and potential. When he is most successful, diverse teams who may barely know each other (or may know each other well and carry a lot of baggage) accomplish more than they thought possible. Beyond his numerous contributions on boards and committees and monetary contributions, Dan has donated immeasurable hours to assist nonprofits in making the most of limited resources.

Dan practices what he preaches. While we all know of Handley & Associates as a "family business", his entire team is family to him. He knows and cares about their families. He offers training and growth opportunities to help his team grow and prosper.

Dan is a trusted partner and advisor to numerous business owners and executives in Michigan. Hundreds of his executive coaching and training clients rely on his wisdom, resourcefulness, and highest integrity. Hundreds more have benefitted from his nonprofit involvements in which he has offered his time and expertise at free or at greatly reduced rates. A few of these organizations include The Stevens Center for Family Business at SVSU, the Great Lakes Bay Institute for Leaders, and the Diocese of Saginaw. Even though his client schedule is always extremely full, he makes time to serve his community.

Sincerely,

Wendy D. Kanar

My name is Jerome Schwind and I understand that Dan Handley is to be nominated for the Robert H. Albert Lifetime Community Service Award from the Saginaw Chamber. I've known Dan for 13 years and have been witness to his unwavering support for his community. Further, the work Dan does with organizations like Isabella Bank extends the reach of his influence in positive, impactful ways. It is for these reasons that I whole heartedly support the nomination of Dan for this award.

Jerome Schwind
President, Isabella Bank

I'm very excited to hear that Dan is being nominated for the Robert H Albert Lifetime Community Service Award. In all honesty I can say that I know no one more worthy. I have worked with Dan for the last 7 years in my capacity of Director of OD at Rehmann. Part of my role is to work closely with Dan and his Saginaw Dale Carnegie franchise to bring the extraordinary Carnegie training to Rehmann.

Dan personally does all the Rehmann training course development and training. Every year we have multiple touch points to ensure that the training truly reflects the culture and values of our Firm. Dan has made it his work to know and be able to speak about those as well or better than our Rehmann associates. It is clearly evident in everything he does with us that he cares about our Firm and about our associates. Every class day that he facilitates his character and integrity come through in his words and his actions. The students listen to him and learn from him not only because he brings great knowledge but because he is personally invested in them and their growth and they can feel and see that.

As he facilitates, he truly observes the students. If he thinks someone is struggling, he sits and chats with them. He works with them between classes if they miss a session. He goes above and beyond Rehmann's expectations of our relationship with the Franchise.

I'm also proud to call him my friend. He is one of the very best people that I know and I put great value in our relationship. I have learned to be a better Firm associate and person through my interactions with Dan.

Thank you again for nominating him for this award. He is certainly an extraordinary nominee and deserving of the honor.

Thank you,

Chris Schulz

Ms. Veronica Horn
President
Saginaw County Chamber of Commerce

Dear Ms. Horn,

I am writing to extend my support to the nomination of Dan Handley for the Robert H. Albert Lifetime Community Service Award. My personal and professional relationship with Dan dates back to 2008 when I joined Isabella Bank. Dan's company and Isabella Bank entered into a partnership that dates back several years prior to 2008 and we have maintained that partnership to this day.

Isabella Bank has 396 individuals employed at the bank and Dan and his team have been instrumental in the development of over 260 of them. His direct impact on the lives of these individuals is a key reason these individuals, and subsequently our organization, have employee engagement levels that far exceed industry averages, and deliver a level of customer service that is second to none. More importantly, the life principles that Dan talks about with members of our team positively impact their personal lives. In other words, his guidance and council go well beyond the walls of Isabella Bank. He has, and is making a difference in people's lives.

Isabella Bank is just one example of an organization that has benefited by Dan's leadership and vision to improve the lives of others. His company has been a provider of Dale Carnegie training in over 36 counties in Michigan for multiple decades. He has served at a high level for many years and been recognized for his accomplishments by Dale Carnegie & Associates, Inc.

I also know that Dan has been very active in many other community organizations and activities throughout the Great Lakes Bay Region. He sets a great example for others to follow.

I appreciate the opportunity to provide my support to Dan's nomination for this community service award. He has made a big impact on my life, the lives of many others, and I am fortunate to have him as a friend and a colleague.

Sincerely,
