About the Nominee: THE WORKWEAR STORE

1. As a frequent customer of The WorkWear Store, I have always been appreciative of how they do business. They are customer friendly and always professional and appropriate. They are a pleasure to work with and have never disappointed!
2. Demonstrates good vision and management in the areas of...
  - a. Growth and marketability - Under new leadership, I have seen increased growth and marketability with The WorkWear Store. Their visible partnerships are increasing which is awesome as they are in the heart of the city.
  - b. Innovations of systems or products – The WorkWear continues to grow innovatively by completing an internal makeover and streamlining how and where work is completed internally. They are now also advertising their talents along with having individual customer promoters supporting them via social media and word of mouth.
  - c. Leadership with employee relations – I've always been impressed with The WorkWear Store team! Clearly leadership is getting it right and branding the importance of customer relations.
3. Displays service to the community

The WorkWear Store has been a part of Light Up the City Saginaw for seven years and counting! They also recently, during the current COVID-19, participated in a drive-thru initiative producing and passing out masks with other local community partners. When it comes to supporting events and initiatives within Saginaw, The WorkWear Store is ALL in!

Sincerely,

Kelley A. Peatross, Ph.D.
