

Saginaw County Chamber of Commerce Corporate Community Service Award
- presented at the Annual Chairman's Ball -

Candidates for the Corporate Community Service Award will meet most of the criteria outlined below:

1. Must be a member business/corporation of the Saginaw County Chamber of Commerce and have made a notable contribution to the quality of life in Saginaw County. This can take the form of employee volunteers and/or corporate financial support for those activities that enrich, protect or entertain the citizenry of the County of Saginaw.
2. Involvement in community programs, activities or services (i.e. charities, youth programs, food banks, etc.)
3. Developing partnerships with the public sector, not-for-profits and the community to enhance community services and community life (collaborative efforts)
4. Achieved recognition of commitment outside of the nominee's area of business
5. A documented, long-standing commitment to corporate citizenship as a preferred way of doing business (longevity of corporate giving)
6. Corporate citizenship must be a shared value of the company, visible at all levels
7. Corporate citizenship must be integrated into a successful business strategy

Nominees must have met the above proposed criteria during the previous 24-month period.

Nominees should have documented evidence of their dedication to community betterment activities. Examples of such documentation may include, but is not limited to the following:

- newspaper/magazine articles
- corporate sponsorship literature from events
- other corporate citizenry awards
- letters of support (no more than 2) from organizations or individuals that have directly benefited from the corporate support, photos, pamphlets, etc.
